From Tuesday October 12 to Saturday October 16. 1736.

AT the Court at Kensington, the Thirteenth Day of October 1736.

PRESENT,

The Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, Guardian of the Kingdom of Great Britain, and his Majeſty's Lieutenant within the ſame, in Council.

Her Majeſty in Council was this Day pleaſed to order, that the Parliament which ſtands prorogued to Thurſday the Fourteenth of this inſtant October, ſhould be further prorogued to Thurſday the Twenty Fifth Day of November next.

Petersbourg, Sept. 18. It is reported here as certain, that Felt Marſhal Count Munich is arrived at Czariczenka, and that his Troops were ſo harraſſed in their Journey by the Crim and Nogay Tartars, that he was forced to march them almoſt all the Way in ſquare Batallions, the Fatigue whereof, together with Sickneſs and other Accidents, is ſaid to have greatly reduced their Number. It is likewiſe reported, that General Leontoff has loſt a great many of the Troops under his Command in retiring from Kinburn, the Tartars having cloſely purſued him till he joined the main Army. Some affirm that the Tartars have advanced even to the Borders of the Ukraine, and burnt ſome Villages near Bahmut. This Court have learnt, that the Ruſſian Officer who carried the Czarina's Anſwer to the Grand Vizier's Letter, was paſſed through Choczim in his Way to the Vizier's Camp; and it is ſuppoſed, if he is not long detained there, he may return hither with the ſaid Vizier's Anſwer in about three Weeks. The only Daughter of the late Prince Menzikoff, who was married to General Adjutant Biron, the Great Chamberlain's Brother, died here ſome Days ago, and was buried Yeſterday.

Turin, Oct. 10, N. S. We have not the leaſt News of the Imperialiſts in the Milaneſe. By the few Letters that come from thence we are informed, that they are entirely taken up with new modelling the Government of that State, and the reſt of Lombardy. Count Traun, who is to command as General the whole Army, is not yet arrived, but is daily expected. Some private Letters mention, that in the mean while, Count Kevenhuller had ordered that all the Cannons, Carriages, Mortars, Bomb-ſhells, Balls, Ammunition, and Magazines that were depoſited in Pavia, ſhould be removed to Mantua, which laſt the Emperor intends ſhall be the general Store for the Defence of the State of Milan, having found by Experience, that Pavia, in itſelf, being a bad Place, and of little Defence, all Stores depoſited there muſt immediately fall into the Hands of the firſt Invader, and be turned againſt them, as happened in the Beginning of the late War, when it would have been very difficult, if not impoſſible, for the Allies to have carried on, in ſo advanced a Seaſon of the Year, the Sieges of Pizzighitone and the Caſtle of Milan, without the Stores they found in Pavia. The Letters from Venice mention, that General Stampa was arrived there on the 20th paſt from Vienna, with Inſtructions from his Court for the Government of the Mantuan; that he had likewiſe a Commiſſion to confer with Count Fuenclara, the Spaniſh Ambaſſadour at Venice, on the Evacuation of Tuſcany, and the exchanging the Acts of Ceſſion; and that he was at the ſame time to deliver to him the Emperour's Paſſports for his Journey to Vienna, where he is to reſide as the Catholick King's Miniſter, as ſoon as the Spaniſh Troops have evacuated.

Copenhagen, Oct. 13, N. S. M. Virzleben, who was Land-droſt of Delmenhorſt, being removed to the like Poſt in Oldenburg, vacant by the Death of M. Seheſted, Count Reuſs is appointed Land-droſt of Delmenhorſt in his ſtead. This young Gentleman came but a few Years ago into this Kingdom, in Company with Count Iſenburg and Count Lynar; and in a ſhort Time attained a Golden Key, with a Place in the Chancery. All the Royal Family continue in perfect Health. M. Lamb the Phyſician, who has recovered the King of Denmark, by venturing, againſt the Opinion of ſeveral others, to adminiſter the Bark to him, has alſo adviſed his Majeſty to uſe Exerciſe, and to endeavour with Amuſements and Diverſions to keep his Mind always chearful; and agreeable to this Preſcription, his Daniſh Majeſty rides out almoſt every Day, and diverts himſelf with Shooting.

Berlin, Oct. 13, N. S. We hear that Felt Marſhal Munich, with the Army under his Command, has left Kinburn and is returned to his firſt Camp at Czariczenka, and this being confirmed here, leaves no room to doubt but the Muſcovites have entirely abandoned the Crimea, and raiſed the Lines and Fortifications of Perecop. Some Letters lately received here, adviſe, that Felt Marſhal Munich has Orders to repair forthwith to Petersbourg. M. Pretorius, the Daniſh Miniſter at this Court, received a few Days ago, his Letters of Revocation.

Whitehall, October 12, 1736.

Whereas the Houſe of Thomas Fonnereau, Eſq; called Chriſt Church, in Ipſwich, in the County of Suffolk, was, about Five of the Clock in the Morning, on Thurſday laſt, the 7th Inſtant, robbed by Three Perſons unknown, who aſſaulted and abuſed one of his Servants in a barbarous Manner: Her Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the ſaid Robbery, is graciouſly pleaſed to promiſe his Majeſty's Pardon to any one of them, who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a further Encouragement, Zachary Philip Fonnereau, of Sice Lane, London, Merchant, hereby promiſes a Reward of Twenty Pounds to any Perſon who ſhall diſcover the Offender or Offenders, to be paid by himſelf or by his Brother the ſaid Thomas Fonnereau of Ipſwich, upon the Conviction of any one of the Criminals.

Zachary Philip Fonnereau.
